Whatever life throws your way, we’re here to help.

Stress, relationships, work and money. These are the most common reasons people reach out to EAP every year. No matter what issues you’re facing, EAP is the perfect first step for you or your household members.

Counseling

Depending on your situation, your preference for help may change. That’s why we offer several different ways for you to get what you need. Counseling is available in a variety of ways:

- Face-to-face
- Over the phone
- Online
- In-the-moment

Work/Life

Work/Life services can help you tackle your to-do list with specialists who can locate providers, get referrals and find resources for almost anything you and your household needs. You have free access to:

- Personalized consultation with a highly-trained specialist over the phone or through online chat
- Referrals to local providers and resources
- Tip sheets, checklists and other helpful tools

Work/Life topics may include family and caregiving, education, legal and financial, career and work, and health and wellness.

Coaching

Life coaching services are designed to promote self-awareness, clarify visions, values, intentions and goals. This service builds on strengths that you already have to help you set and achieve your goals. With coaching you can:

- Schedule telephonic sessions with one of our coaches
- Work with your coach to establish and meet goals
- Identify resources to keep you on track

Coaching topics may include managing stress, work/life balance, time management, personal challenges, setting and organizing priorities.

Online Services

Our comprehensive website, as well as our New Directions EAP mobile app, make it easy to access information regarding EAP benefits and requesting services. The website and app offer:

- Referrals via online intake
- Substance use resources
- Mental health toolkits
- Resource Library includes webinars, calculators, videos, articles and much more.
- Monthly live webinars and other training resources
